Crowd of Four Thousand People Joined in the Pageant of the Day.

BEAUTIFUL ANIMALS SHOWN

The Racing Contests Were Interspersed by Many Unique Features.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RADFORD, VA., September 12.—The third day of the fair was one of the greatest of the season. Fine weather prevailed, and a crowd of more than four thousand people, crowded with a splendid program, made the day a great success.

The forenoon was devoted to judging and showing animals and poultry, and some beautiful animals passed before the grandstand.

The racing contests were interspersed by many unique features.

Mr. R. H. Mooreman, of Roanoke, won the sprinter's racing contest, with colt, King Star, of Roanoke, beating Mr. J. H. Moore, of Roanoke, with colt, King Star, of Roanoke, third.

Lynchburg Council Has Eye on Two Sites a Few Miles From the City.

A TROUBLESOME RESORT ALL SHOW AN INCREASE

Colored Woman Heavily Fined on Several Grave Charges.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., September 12.—The Lynchburg Council on Cemetery has selected options on two sites in Campbell county for a proposed new cemetery, and the matter will be brought to the attention of the board in a formal way at one of the next meetings. The two sites, one of which contains thirty-two acres and the other thirty-six acres, are three miles and a half from the center of the city, and Mr. L. L. Latham, the chairman of the committee, thinks either of these locations will be suitable for the purpose, and it is probable that the purchase of one of them will be made.

It will be recalled that the Methodist cemetery, the only large cemetery owned by the city, has long since been sold, and the demand for a new cemetery owned by the city has become imperative.

The cost of either of the properties selected today at the exposition offices for Mr. L. L. Latham, at Buffalo, where the cemetery is now in session, is about $100,000, and the city has agreed to pay for the purchase of the property.

Comptroller of Road Occupies the Stand All Day in Rate Hearing.

MR. WICKHAM QUESTIONER

Attorney for C. & O. Brings Out Facts Regarding Mileage and Stock.

Comptroller L. F. Sullivan, of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, was the witness before the State Corporation Commission yesterday in the already long drawn out rate inquiry, and he occupied the stand all day.

Mr. Sullivan was questioned by Hon. Henry T. Wickham, the general auditor for the road, and in the answer he submitted a large batch of statements as a part of his evidence.

When the evidence was read over by the witness, and also continued by the questioning session.

Mr. Sullivan started at his testimony, and gradually told the story of the financial operations of his company from that time.

C. & O. Mileage.
"What was the total mileage of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company at the time of the first reorganization (1878)?" asked Mr. Wickham.

"The total mileage was 423.5 miles," answered Mr. Sullivan.

"What was the total mileage of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company in 1898?" asked Mr. Wickham.

MAJOR TIERNEY FALLS TO SURVIVE STOCK

Operation as Last Resort Fatal to Prominent Hyattsville Resident.

ONCE LIVED IN RICHMOND

Early Thrown on Own Resources, He Gradually Worked to the Top.

HYATTSVILLE, September 12.—The funeral of Major Michael V. Tierney, former Mayor of Hyattsville, who died yesterday afternoon at Providence Hospital, will be held Saturday morning at 9:30 at St. Jerome's Church, at Hyattsville. Services will be conducted by the Rev. J. P. McKeen, and interment will be in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Major Tierney had been in ill health for several years, but it was not known that his condition was so serious until a few days ago, when he went to Providence Hospital for an operation for liver disease.

The operation was a most difficult and severe one, and but little hope was entertained for his recovery.

Once Resided in Richmond.
Born in Washington in 1832, Major Tierney was the son of John and Ann Tierney.

When he was 12 years old he moved to Richmond with his parents, and for many years resided nearly opposite the famous Liberty Prison.

When nine years of age young Tierney's father died, and on two occasions he was taken to the orphan asylum, but he was eventually adopted by a family.

TO AVOID POSTS WHERE MEN ARE ILL-TREATED

Secretary of Navy Takes Up Case at Instance of Rear-Admiral Evans.

WASHINGTON, September 12.—Rear-Admiral Evans has sent to the Secretary of the Navy a report, in which he criticizes the treatment of sailors of his fleet received while at Portland, Me. He claims that they were beaten by the police, and refused admittance to places of amusement because they wore their uniforms. Commenting upon the report, Secretary Roosevelt said that he would make recommendations to Congress for legislation to meet such conditions, and he also remarked that it would not be the policy of the department to go out of the way to send vessels to places where sailors are ill-treated.

The inference is that all ports of this kind will be avoided, unless it is necessary for vessels to go there in the course of business.
